the ultimate blank canvas

For architects, interior designers, marketing and brand experts, there is no canvas bigger to let your imagination run free. DigiWall allows you to 'dress' the walls of public and commercial spaces, inside and out, transforming everything from café bars to high street retail stores, banks, airports and museums – the possibilities really are only limited by your imagination.

Product Application: This film should only be installed by an approved digiglass installer. Specific procedures have to be followed.
